

I enjoy my protection from the telemarketers interrupting my home life. I have several medical procedures I perform and it was not good for me to stop them to answer the ever ringing phone before the law was passed to stop them. Why would you or anyone else try to take our peace away.